1. The Polish trading firm PAGED is interested in selling wood for the production of Excelsior (Schleifholz fuer Holzwolle). They are offering this wood at a price of $11.75 per cubic meter. This price is far too high but PAGED appears uninterested in lowering the price to meet competitors. Although they are believed to have large quantities of this wood available, they are apparently able to sell it in countries where the competition is not so keen.
